

'To clasp hands in prayer is the beginning of an uprising against the chaos of the world' Karl Barth

Pray for Schools Day is Tuesday 17 November 2009. Will you be taking part?

If you haven't heard about it before, this is a day set aside every year for people across Europe to focus on praying for their schools. You'll find more information at www.prayday.eu or www.schoolsprayernetwork.org.uk.

Join in to pray for the schools of the Brentwood borough:

- anyone who believes that God hears our prayers.
